

Description: Registered Nurse

Job Duties:

- Be available and on call at all times throughout the program duration.
- Review each participant's medication list and past medical history upon participant arrival to the program.
- Assess any new participant symptoms, skin breakdown, or medication changes that arise throughout the program.
- Provide education specific to participant medical needs.
- Act as a resource for any medical questions or concerns that may arise.
- Accompany participants to the hospital as emergencies arise and advocate for participant specific SCI needs.
- Communicate new medical issues directly to program directors.
- Supervise Residential Aides with bowel and bladder care as needed.

Skills/Qualifications: Possess a license as a Nurse and currently work on a rehabilitation team, has good knowledge of spinal cord injuries (including side effects and risks associated with the diagnosis, general physiological knowledge), high energy and motivated to help others, able to create and maintain a safe environment, willing to work as a team and be flexible with one's schedule.